

short biography

Written by Administrator

Saturday, 24 May 2008 04:44 - Last Updated Monday, 27 October 2008 20:32

Peter Lindroth

Born in Norrköping on the 3rd of June 3, 1950. He studied at the Gothenburg College of Music and the Royal College of Music in Stockholm, where his composition teachers included Sven-David Sandström and Pär Lindgren.

Lindroth is an all-round musician. In 1965 he formed his first pop group and in 1970 he became a professional musician. Over the years he has appeared in several different musical roles - playing in pop groups, dance bands, theatres, and working in studios as a musician as well as producer.

Peter Lindroth's catalogue of works include orchestral, choral and chamber music. He has been a member of the Society of Swedish Composers (FST) since 1994.